An RESP (Registered Education Savings Plan):

- ✓ is a special savings plan (like a savings account)
- ✓ helps you, your family or friends to save early for a child's education after high school
- ✓ is registered by the Government of Canada
- ✓ allows savings for education after high school to grow tax-free and could also gain government money through the Canada Education Savings Grant and the Canada Learning Bond, if you qualify.

There are 3 general types of RESP plans.

- ✓ Family: Ideal if you have 1 child or more.
- ✓ Individual (non-family) Ideal if you are not related to the child you are investing for.
- ✓ Group: Ideal if you can make regular payments throughout the term of the RESP.
